

A photograph of a narrow, gravelly road winding through a lush, green mountain landscape. The scene is shrouded in a thick, white mist or fog, which obscures the background and creates a sense of mystery. The road is bordered by a simple wooden post-and-rail fence on the left. The right side of the road is a steep, grassy slope. Overlaid on the right side of the image is the text "SOME SOULS SEE STRANGE SILHOUETTES" in a large, bold, white, sans-serif font. The text is oriented diagonally, following the curve of the road and the slope of the hillside. The overall atmosphere is quiet and somewhat eerie due to the fog.

SOME SOULS SEE STRANGE SILHOUETTES

some souls see...

30 letters 2mm , untreated aluminium, lasered, steel cable, U profile, total length 18 m, 2009

The alliteration of „some souls see... “ refers to the mystic village of Heiligkreuz in the Entlebuch region in Central Switzerland.